FLAVORS OF PUERTO RICO

Yadier Molina, all-star catcher of the St. Louis Cardinals, is hosting a charity cocktail/dinner in his hometown of St. Louis in benefit of his nonprofit organization Fundación 4 (Foundation 4) to continue his ongoing efforts to create happier lives and futures for underprivileged Hispanic/Latino children in Puerto Rico and St. Louis.

Through special fundraising events, Fundación 4 aims with donations/sponsorships from private and public sector partners to aid children in need due to abuse, neglect, cancer, disease, poverty, education, among many other causes.

The evening's theme of the second edition of Flavors of Puerto Rico – Christmas in Paradise, scheduled for Thursday, May 23, 2019 at the River City Casino & Hotel in St. Louis, will transport guests into a multi-sensorial traditional Puerto Rican Jíbaro Christmas celebration by appealing to the five senses: Tastes of Puerto Rico, Aromas of Puerto Rico, Sights of Puerto Rico, the Sounds of Puerto Rico, and the Warm touch of the residents of Puerto Rico.

All proceeds will go towards Fundación 4 is a 501 (c) (3) nonprofit charity founded by Yadier and his wife Wanda Torres in 2010. The name “Fundacion 4” is in representation of Yadi’s #4 uniform number.

FLAVORS OF PUERTO RICO

Chef Vivoni Ventura, one of Puerto Rico's celebrity chefs, will transport guests in the city of the St. Louis on an unforgettable multi-sensorial, multi-course Puerto Rican Christmas culinary journey.

Vivoni grew up surrounded by a coffee Hacienda in the central mountains of Adjuntas, Puerto Rico. He earned his degree in Culinary Arts in San Juan and immediately started learning from diverse kitchens. Driven by appetite, at the age of 27 he was already an executive chef for a hotel in Grenada, West Indies. Vivoni immersed and dipped on a varied sampler of cultures that includes: Spain, France, Mexico, Venezuela, Dominican Republic, Bolivia, and some U.S. mainland states. He has been involved in diverse cuisines, from humble Boricua Fogón to Michelin Stars Kitchens such as PERSE restaurant from renowned chef Thomas Keller in New York.

Highlighted by Food and Wine Magazine as Puerto Rico's new culinary promise, Vivoni hosts his own cooking show Travesías con Sabor on Channel 6 in Puerto Rico. The program is taped outdoors with the purpose of enhancing Puerto Rico's agriculture by cooking with beautiful backdrops of Puerto Rico while using local ingredients. Vivoni has made appearances on renowned television programs such as Cutthroat Kitchen aired on the Food Network channel and Movable Food Feast presented on Fine Cooking channel.

He partners with his parents at Restaur-Arte Vida Ventura, also known as Hacienda Luz de Luna in Adjuntas, which dates back to 1887.
